Meeting Rules

- All cell phones & pagers must be switched to "silent" during the meeting.
- Only elected Commissioners are permitted to sit at the Commissioners' meeting table. Members of the public may not approach the Commissioners' meeting table or engage Commissioners while sitting at the table in individual conversations while the meeting is in session.
- Commissioners and the public attending the meeting are obliged and expected to maintain order, and to speak and behave in a civil and respectful manner. The Chair will recognize and call on constituents and Commissioners who raise their hands to speak. The Chair will use her discretion to maintain order and enforce the meeting rules.
- Constituents will be called on in random order, to allow as many to speak at least once as time permits. Due to time constraints, a second opportunity to speak may not be available.
- Questions and comments regarding agenda items must be relevant to the subject under discussion. Comments or questions not relevant to the agenda item under consideration shall be ruled out of order by the Chair.
- The public attending may ask one question and one follow-up question during the Q&A period.
- During the time allotted for Community Concerns, the public attending may address any issue of concern of which the Commission should be aware. Any member of the public making a comment or expressing a concern shall be limited to three minutes. Disorderly persons who do not cooperate with the rulings of the Chair shall be asked to leave the meeting. The Chair, or her/his designee, may call for police assistance to maintain and enforce order.
- We will set time limits for each speaker and each agenda item.
- Following presentations, Commissioners will ask questions, followed by questions from the public attending.
- NOTE: This meeting may be tape-recorded.
