

3. To help offset the cost of camp, we offer unique cooperative opportunities for parents who have time and talent to donate to the camp in exchange for their children attending the camp for free or a discounted rate.
4. Many children will not have the opportunity to attend high quality summer camps or enrichment programs due to the high cost and Kids and Culture Camp provides parents with an affordable option.
5. Children in ANC 4B who attend the camp will benefit by:
  - a. Participating in activities that reinforce the importance of an education, learning about other cultures, and the benefits that come along with achieving academic excellence.
  - b. Preparing children to think globally by introducing them to domestic and international affairs at an early age.
  - c. Cultivating the importance of leadership, service, and cultural awareness to aid in producing the next generation of leaders in the global community.
6. Providing outreach opportunities for organizations that will be invited to speak to the campers about topics that relate to the weekly themes and/or sub-themes.
7. Provide immediate teaching opportunities for college students interested in working with children upon graduation.

The camp is open to the general public. Parents of children ages 3-12 may register to participate in the camp. Slots are available for 100-130 campers per week. Campers are divided into the following groups:

Age 3-5
Age 6-7
Age 8-12

Additionally, parents are the main organizers of the camp. Some of their areas of expertise include: law, theater, visual arts, accounting, biology, international studies, chemistry, Spanish, political science, music, international affairs, health, nutrition and management. Others in the community will participate, including, but not limited to, artists, librarians, professors, and health and wellness instructors.

Camp Mission

The purpose of Kids and Culture Camp is to provide high quality, affordable, fun, educational and culturally enhancing activities for children during the summer. Kids and Culture provides four weeks of summer programming in an effort to introduce children to international affairs at an early age. Our camp coordinators and volunteers work cooperatively to provide a safe, structured environment where children will gain a greater knowledge and appreciation of themselves and the world around them.
